

Volunteer as an English Teacher!

Hogar Immigrant Services, a program of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington, is looking for English as a Second Language teachers for our upcoming Spring semester.

Volunteer Teacher: You don't need foreign language proficiency or previous experience. Just bring your smile, talents and compassion for others! Hogar Immigrant Services volunteers attend a one hour orientation and six hour training, and are given a teacher's toolbox of games, activities and resources, and our own text, and an easy to follow teacher's guide. Classes are held at 13 convenient locations throughout Northern Virginia.

Site Coordinator: Are you an organized person who is dedicated to making a difference in the community? Would you like to be considered for the most important volunteer position that Hogar offers? Well then, the Volunteer Site Coordinator position might be for you! We are looking for a highly organized and motivated person to manage a group of volunteer teachers at CTR. You would be responsible for the on-site coordination of the thriving program that helps so many immigrants learn English each semester.

So, if you: a) Want to start making a difference in your community and b) can commit to volunteer two evenings a week (T/Th), we want to hear from you!

*No other language knowledge is necessary.

For more information on upcoming orientations please contact Sheila Sullivan at: (703) 5349805 ext. 238 or ssullivan@ccda.net